ANDREW L. GOINS III "ANDY"

Andy was a coach's dream football player. He could light up lights on Friday night. Andy attended and graduated from East Davidson High School. He was All Conference in football, basketball and baseball. He was East Davidson's Athlete of the Year and MVP in 1974. The school thought so much of Andy that they retired his football jersey in 1974. Andy played in the Shrine Bowl during his senior year. He received a full football scholarship to attend and play for the Appalachian Mountaineers. He was also president of the ASU Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Andy was sidelined during his sophomore and junior years due to a head injury. He came back his senior year to score 25 touchdowns and gain 2,000 yards as East posted an 8-1-1 record.
