C. ALLEN BROWN

C. Allen Brown starred in football, basketball, and baseball for Thomasville High School in the sixties. In football he played under the legendary George Cushwa and received statewide recognition. He continued to star on the field in his four years at Guilford College. After graduation, his hometown called him to return. While at Thomasville High School, he rejoined Coach Cushwa as an assistant. In 1984 Allen took over the reigns of head coach and continued the winning tradition at Thomasville. His teams won fifteen conference championships, made 21 post season appearances, and won three state crowns. His teams won an amazing 263 games against only 72 losses and two ties. Following in his old coach's footsteps, Allen became a legend in the Chair City.
