

2003 Inductee

CARROLL W. YOUNGKIN

Carroll Youngkin "Yunk" was the first great basketball player to come out of North Davidson High School in the mid 50's. His talent on the court earned him a chance to play at Duke University. He earned many awards while in high school: All Northwest two times, All State two times, All Tournament, State Finals, and MVP in the East/West All Star Game. At Duke University, Carroll was voted to the All ACC 1st Team in 1958-59 and 1959-60. At Duke he is still listed as 13th in career rebounds with 829 and at 15th with 53.99% in career field goal percentage. Carol and his wife, Ellis, have two children and make Boca Raton, Florida their home.