

2004 Inductee

DANIEL ELLIS MEDLIN

Danny's road to the Super Bowl started on the grid-irons of Davidson County. He gained recognition while attending Thomasville High School by being All Conference and All State in football. After playing in the Shrine Bowl and the East West All Star game, many Universities began wooing him. Danny signed with NC State University. This time the Pro Scouts saw him play in the North-South All Star game in Florida and the Senior Bowl in Mobile, Alabama and drafted him in the sixth round. He was to become an Oakland Raider. Danny now proudly wears a Super Bowl ring from the 1977 Raiders. He currently coaches football and wrestling at Thomasville High School and teaches at the Middle School in Thomasville.