DONNIE HOLT

"Dink" was making big splashes in Thomasville back in the early 70's. He was excelling in baseball, track, basketball and football. As a freshman, he advanced to the State (NCWHSAA) finals in the Triple Jump. Donnie was All-South Piedmont Conference in basketball, finishing third in ballot for Player of the Year. He was a three year starter on the Varsity Football team as wide receiver, leading the team for three years in pass receiving. "Dink" was recruited and went to ASU as a wide receiver. For three years he led ASU, and is in the top ten in yards per receptions. Donnie caught the winning pass to put ASU on top to defeat the University of South Carolina in 1975. He was All Southern Conference Wide Receiver in 1976. Thomasville Jaycees named him "Outstanding Young Educator" in 1979. Donnie has coached at Thomasville and at East Forsyth High School.
