

2003 Inductee

HENRIETTA TAYLOR WALLS

Henrietta Walls is an athlete! She has spent many years playing the game of basketball both as a young child, the amateur and as a professional. She is creative, energetic and ambitious. Henrietta "lit" up the gym at Central Davidson High School. Her 1979 team won the NC State Championship. Some of her many awards were: Kodak All American, All American, and NC Sportswriters Association Player of the Year-1979. Henrietta averaged 30 points and 20 rebounds. Her playing career took her to UNC-CH where she played four years as a starter. She was first female basketball player at UNC to receive ACC honors for First All Tournament Team. She is recognized as one of the Top Fifty Basketball Players at UNC. Henrietta went on to play professional basketball in Sweden, London, Spain and Italy. She is also a

