

2004 Inductee

HOWARD HAYES

Howard has been a fixture in Davidson County, having coached here for over thirty nine years. Born in Wilkes County, he graduated from Elkin High and Catawba College where he made Honorable Mention All Conference in 1956. He is retired from teaching but still helps with the running backs at Walter Williams High School in Burlington. He has been Conference Coach of the Year several times. Howard has helped coach in the NC Shrine Bowl and the East-West All Star Football Game. He is also an honorary member of the NC Football Coaches Association and a member of the South Davidson Hall of Fame.

