

2009 Inductee

Patty Lynn Shoaf

Patty was a sensational multi-sport athlete at West Davidson High School from 1984-88. Her basketball accolades include West Davidson High School's MVP 1986-87, 1987-88, Central Carolina Conference Player of the Year 1987, West Davidson High School's Best Offensive Player 1985-86, Davidson County Scoring Leader 1986-87, Member NCHSAA AA State Championship Team, Davidson County Christmas Tournament All-Tournament Team, All-Northwest Team 1986-87, NCHSAA Western Regional Team 1986-87, All County (Davidson) 1986, 87, 88, All Central Carolina Conference 1986, 87, 88. Her total high school points scored: 1,928, most points in one game: 45 (versus North Rowan High School, 2-27-88), most points in one season: 716, 1987-88. If that was not enough, she also excelled in Track and Field: West Davidson High School's MVP 1987-88, All Central Carolina Conference 800m, 1988, West Davidson High School records: 200 m Dash 28.20, 400 m Dash 61.90, 800 m Dash 2:23:47 and NCHSAA 2-A Champion 800 m, 1988. Believe it or not, Patty ran cross-country also. She was West Davidson High School's MVP in 1985, 1986, 1987, 1988 and All Central Carolina Conference, 1987. To round out her high school career, she was named West Davidson High School's Miss Green Dragon, 1987-88 and Female Christian Athlete of the Year, 1987-88. At the conclusion of her high school career, Patty attended Louisburg Jr. College 1988-90. While there she was a member of the Varsity Basketball Team, Outstanding Student Athlete, 1990; Isaac D. Moon Award, 1990 (given to the most outstanding sophomore for leadership, scholarship and citizenship) and Phi Beta Kappa, Cumme Laude graduate. From Louisburg, she attended UNC-CH 1990-93 and received Dean's list honors, was runner-up for physical education outstanding student teacher award and received her BA in Education. After graduation, she has accomplished even more. She has been a numerous winner of State Games Criteriums and Time Trials, numerous winner of State Road Race, Criteriums and Time Trials, a member of Team USA Duathlon 2001-02, All American Team Member 2001-02 Duathlon, ranked 3rd for 30-34 age for USA Duathletes, named to Inside Triathlons "IT" list for Duathlon 2001, and top-ranked Duathlete in the 30-34 age group 2002, was Bronze Medalist, long course World Duathlon Championships, Venray, Holland 2001, Cyclist of the Year, Spin Cycle/Duke Sports Medicine, 2004, Elite Pro Member of BMW-Bianchi Cycling Team 2005-06, Featured Athlete for Endurance Magazine, April 2006, and finally overall winner of Eagleman Aquavelo Division, 2009.

