PETER F. JONES, III

Peter Franklin Jones, III, known as just "Pete" became a fixture in Davidson County sports immediately on his arrival. Born in Winston Salem, he served in the US Navy from 1952-56. His tour of duty took him to Japan and the Phillipines. Pete attended Elon College from 1956-60 and earned his Masters in 1974 from A&T University. At Elon, he was a member of the baseball team for four years, played second base and was Conference Champs for four years. Pete coached high school basketball for 31 years, netting 491 wins and nine conference championships. In 1975 he won the Western NC State Title. Pete also coached baseball for 14 years, having 226 wins. His 1966-67 team won the WNCAA State Championship. There was never a player who didn't love Pete Jones.
