RICHARD LEE MOTSINGER “RICK”

Rick's sport life became evident when he was a standout for Ledford High School. He was point guard at basketball and a middle-infielder for the baseball team. With no scholarship offers, he walked on at Wingate Junior College. He jumped right into a starting role on the baseball team. He was named to two All American teams. The White Sox drafted him fourth overall in the '69 draft. He made the All Star Team while playing at Sarasota, Florida. Eventually, Rick returned to the class room and coaching profession. He coached at Trinity, High Point Central and SE Guilford. He coached baseball and basketball at these schools and won four conference championships. He is retired from coaching now and enjoys a part ownership in a business.
