ROY L. SWICEGOOD

Roy Lingle Swicegood played and lettered in basketball and baseball while attending Tyro High School. He graduated in 1926. He played and lettered in basketball while attending Lenoir Rhyne College, graduating in 1930. Roy returned to Davidson County where he began a teaching and coaching career which lasted 42 years. He played and coach semi-pro baseball. Roy's high school basketball teams won many championships. He was named "Davidson County Coach of the Year" for three years. Roy taught competitive and innovative sports skills to hundreds of young people in Davidson County. He was exemplary in his own character and accepted no less from his players. A true Southern gentleman and a record-holding coach...a great combination!

Roy was truly a role model for Davidson County youth for nearly half a century.
