

2002 Inductee

TOMMY GRAYSON

Tommy Grayson was a triple threat during his years at Lexington High School, excelling in football, basketball, and baseball. In addition, he starred for the Lexington Post 8 American Legion team. His diverse talents continued to shine at Chowan College and Guilford College. At Chowan, he earned all conference honors in football and baseball. At Guilford, he starred on the gridiron on offense, defense, and special teams, leading the conference in scoring and earning all league honors. At third base, he earned all conference, all district, all state collegiate, and All American honors, while leading the Quakers to the college world series. After graduation, he played minor league baseball making it to the Toledo Mudhens of the International League. Since ending his playing days, he has enjoyed a distinguished career as an educator and coach on the high school and collegiate levels.

